The Days of Tight Belts Are Over Cling-Surface

"CLING-SURFACE" IS A BELT filler, which produces a clean, clinging surface on the belt after it has penetrated the belt, and it is a belt preservative, making and keeping the leather, cotton or rope flexible and elastic, vastly increasing its life. It also acts perfectly on rubber belts.

One-third more power is transmitted by its use, or in other words, a belt two-thirds as large will transmit the power if "Cling-Surface" is used.

CRUELTY ON THE SEAS

Proceedings in the United States Courts.

IWILEI DEMURRER WAS OVERRULED

Miscellaneous Matters in the Territorial Circuit Court—Father Wants His Children.

Yesterday afternoon the United States Commissioner found Captain E. Wallace had sufficient evidence against him to warrant him being held for cruelty on the high seas. He was released upon furnishing bonds to the amount of $5,000. The hearing of first mate, John Douglas, has not been held, but will take place today. The hearing of the second mate was also called and concluded yesterday. He, too, was found to have enough evidence of an incriminating nature against him to warrant his being kept on shore until such time as the courts may try him. The second mate was unable to furnish bonds, so he will have to spend his time between the present date and the calling of his trial in Oahu prison. The Sea King is here from Newcastle with coal. On the way to this port several of the crew complained. Immediately upon their arrival, which was on the 29th of June, they filed charges that they had been most shamefully treated by the officers of the vessel. The testimony of several of the sailors was of such a nature that the Commissioner ordered that eight of them be held on behalf of the United States Government.

GEAR ON IWILEI.
Judge Gear yesterday made permanent the injunction against Iwilei. The opinion of the court was a most lengthy document, covering several pages of legal cap, and written closely in microscope script. Judge Gear took up each point in detail. The demurrer holds that there was no house at Iwilei whose character could be questioned. The decision holds to the contrary. The demurrers held that the words, "In equity at chambers," should have appeared at the head of the petition. The court says their absence does not in any way invalidate the legality of that document, or in any way abridge its effectiveness. L. A. Andrews, on behalf of the demurrers, noted exceptions, the demurrer having been overruled.

MISCELLANEOUS.
The attorney in the case of Jose da Silva asked permission of the court to amend his complaint by striking therefrom the allegations of fraud against J. M. Osorio, the present administrator. Thomas Fitch, the attorney for the petitioner, said that he did not believe that the charges of fraud could be sustained.

The application of E. A. Douthitt, who requests that he be admitted to practice law in the Territory of Hawaii, was filed with the clerk of the Supreme Court yesterday.

John Martins, on behalf of Hattie Petzold, aged 4 years, and Eliza Petzold, aged 6 years, has petitioned to the courts of this Territory that he be appointed administrator of the estate of Herman Petzold, an insane person, who is at present in the asylum. The incompetent has a lot of land on Lanai street in this city. The petition was granted yesterday afternoon, the petitioner being required to give a bond of $2,000.

David Dayton of this city has asked for a distribution of the estate of James Dalton. The deceased was a saloon-keeper, who died some two years ago, leaving property to the amount of $8,500.

James Love, who was restrained from having control of his two natural children, Annie K. Hart and James Love, Jr., because of his improvident habits of life, has petitioned to the courts to be allowed possession of his offspring once more, he having learned, since the time the children were placed under the guardianship of J. A. Magoon, in 1895, to live quite comfortably on the sum of $625 per annum. Unless sufficient cause can be shown by those interested in the children, why the petition should not be granted, the prayer of the father will be allowed.

WANTS HER MONEY TO EARN INTEREST

Legal Investment Sought for a Sum in Court's Hands.

Mrs. Anna Long, widow of Joseph Booth, deceased, has filed papers in the First Circuit Court as follows: She has a life estate in and to a certain fund in the hands of the clerk of the Judiciary Department, to wit, $1,837.50 principal, part proceeds of land sold years ago, belonging to her late husband. That $1,800 of said sum came in the hands of the present clerk in the shape of Government bonds handed over to him by his predecessor, the late William Foster, then clerk of the Supreme Court. All of the income arising out of the said fund has been paid to the petitioner from time to time, until May 30 last, when interest on said Government bonds stopped and said bonds have been redeemed and the money is

AWFUL AGONY

The Story of a Stricken Woman Whom Doctors Were Not Able to Help.

(From the News, Connorsville, Ind.)
The story of Mrs. Nellie M. Hedden, of No. 621 Summit avenue, Connorsville, Ind., contains an important lesson for many American women who suffer in silence rather than face the ordeal that the usual treatment of their troubles entails. It is a story that rings with honest gratitude and does not tell half the misery that the narrator endured. Other women who are suffering as Mrs. Hedden did will know how to understand and appreciate much that cannot be told in a newspaper article. Mrs. Hedden's experience is best given in her own words. She says:

"For nearly a year I endured terrible agony caused by a general breaking down of the nervous system, female weakness and suppression of the periods. I suffered greatly with bearing down pains and was very weak and short of breath. My circulation was very bad, causing numbness of limbs, dizziness and headache all the time. My heart would sometimes feel as if there was a heavy weight on it. I had never been healthy and strong, so you can readily see that I was in no condition to withstand such a combination of ailments.

"I grew worse very rapidly and all the doctors I tried failed to check my decline. A friend of my husband told him how much good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done his wife, so I commenced taking them and can now state that they are the only relief I ever had. The first box helped me so much that I was thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of the remedy. I continued the treatment for several weeks, using six boxes in all.

"In conclusion I will say that if any one, who is suffering the same as I was, will take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as to the extent of its obligations to these directed they will be rewarded."

(Signed) NELLIE M. HEDDEN.

now in the hands of Henry Smith, clerk of the Judiciary Department, who is anxious that the amount be disposed of according to judicial authority; that said sum of money is now not earning more interest or income, and it is desirable the same be put at interest, but Henry Smith does not wish to become responsible for the investment.

Said sum of money belongs to and is the distributive share of one Ida Booth, now the wife of one George Patterson, both residing at Honolulu, but petitioner alleges on information and belief that said share has been mortgaged to one Segelken, who has since left the Hawaiian Islands, and that she believes F. A. Schaefer represents said Segelken here. That the only interest petitioner has in said fund is to see that it is perpetually earning interest, and whether said Ida Patterson or said Segelken is the rightful reversioner does not concern the petitioner.

She prays that a trustee be appointed to take hold and invest said fund, and for that purpose petitioner would nominate her son, Charles Booth, as a suitable and responsible person to be such trustee. She asks a citation issue for Ida Patterson and F. A. Schaefer.

A clergyman while catechizing his Sunday school had occasion to ask the children the meaning of the word "epistle." A little girl in the youngest class was so certain that she knew with the greatest of confidence, answered, "An epistle is the wife of an apostle."—New York Sun.
